Good day, my name is Javier Cruz Castillo, I am an apprentice of the technologist in analysis and software development under the tab 2758343, of which the main instructor is ESTEBAN ERNESTO MORALES CASTRO.

I am a professional as a business administrator and with great expectations to contribute in the management area of organizations, I am characterized by being a leader in decision making and monitoring of organizational activities. Currently, I work as a public servant in charge of payroll and my job expectations are focused on aligning the administration with the software and thus lead projects or administrative positions that contribute directly and efficiently in organizational compliance.

Additionally, with the recognition of my degree as a technologist from SENA, I will have more labor benefits and broad academic knowledge, considering that it is an entity that focuses on the trainees to be efficient and productive in the labor fields, in order to achieve that in a short time I can be a leader in project construction.

Title

Application for the position of software developer.

Greetings

Receive a cordial greeting and an extensive thank you for considering me for the postulation in this important position for the company.

Body of the message

According to the call made by the company ABC and to my profession of analysis and software development, I want to express that it is satisfactory to be in this place exposing with gratitude and firmness my professional profile and more than a request, it is to demonstrate that my knowledge will contribute in the fulfillment of the organizational objectives.

For this reason, I hope to be taken into account in the position of software developer due to my knowledge of Java, Python and other programs that will integrate the information systems that the company is managing.

With the acceptance of this job, I will be able to contribute the knowledge as the main axis, in each of the processes that the company has focused for the fulfillment of the organizational objectives, making that by means of the dynamism can integrate each employee to be the central axis of the growth that this company will have.

I am very grateful and my desire is to contribute in the development of innovative and practical applications to make each function performed by each employee is measured and impact directly to the processes and procedures already outlined.

Cordially yours,

Javier Cruz Castillo
